

Center for Academic Services

Marsha Ramsey, M.A.

Director

E-mail: m.ramsey@tcu.edu

Marsha Ramsey has served as the Director of the Center for Academic Services since January, 2003. Prior to coming to TCU, she worked at Tarrant County College in a number of roles, including academic advising, testing and disabilities services. Marsha began her career at TCU in 2000 as an academic advisor; she also served as the Coordinator of Student Disabilities Services until 2006.

Ms. Ramsey holds bachelor's and master's degree in psychology from Texas Woman's University. Her graduate work included an emphasis in family systems and counseling. Her research focused on gender and modes of treatment for alcoholism.

Marsha is a member of the Association of Higher Education and Disabilities and the National Academic Advising Association. She serves as a mediator and University compliance officer for student ADA concerns. She currently sits on the Undergraduate Admissions/Retention Committee, Intercollegiate Athletics Committee, SACS Reaffirmation Review Committee and as an Ad Hoc member of and the Undergraduate Council and the Scholarship Appeals Committee.